1. This is 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights case only cause of action U.S. Const., 14th Amend., Sec1. due process and equal protection of law demanding at least seven digits dollars damages.

1 / 53

2. Nine prior filed complaints 1st, 2nd, and 4th-10th (includes unfiled 3rd complaint) never opposed in any dismissal motion memorandum and not found cause of action against New York City Board of Education, City of New York, and Corporation Counsel of the City of New York pre 3/18/87 termination EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males teachers and supervisors 1st prior claimed in 10/4/94 filed 94 Civ. 7186 (JFK) complaint before Judge John F. Keenan, SDNY where not found beyond equitably tolled statutes of limitations for civil rights case, res judicata barred by decision on same cause of action in any specific prior filed complaint, or improper in any other manner (usually case precedential law) where beginning at 2nd filed allowed repetitive filings "same core allegations" in federal district courts of jurisdictions for no final judgement on merits for untimely or res judicata barred and/or wrongful dismissals "based on his dismissal by the Board of Education [3/18/87 personal injury diversity case (opposing parties in different jurisdictions) cause of action 1st fraud from 11/26/94 dismissal motion memorandum p.6 top for 10/4/94 complaint before Judge Keenan, SDNY] and/or denial of application to have his teaching license reinstated [3/20/90 personal injury diversity case cause of action 2nd fraud and its Chancellor as 3rd fraud from same]" avoiding 2nd Cir. upon appeal allowing to stand illegal statutes of limitations and/or res judicata dismissal by federal district court.

3. U.S. Supreme Ct. equitably tolling begins counting analogous state law statutes of limitations (N.Y.S. 3yr.) not from instance of violation but from knowledge or reasonable basis of knowledge of civil rights violation.

4. "Except where fraud or want of jurisdiction is charged, the recitals of a judgement import absolute verity and a court called upon to determine its character upon a plea of res judicata looks only to the face of the judgement and the pleadings on which it is rendered." Matthews v. Wolvin, C.A.Fla.1959, 226 F.2d 772.

5. Court must accept factual allegations stated in complaint as true. See Cooper v. Pate, 378 U.S. 564 (1964) where EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males must be accepted as true but not three 11/26/94 frauds of opposing counsel.

6. Plaintiff alleges decades of secrecy of employer's conduct is extraordinary. Judge Weinfeld held in Bryan v. Chemical Bank, 665 F.Supp. 322, 325 (S.D.N.Y. 1987), the doctrine of equitably tolling "applies only where an employer's conduct is 'extraordinary'" (Citing and quoting Miller v. International Telephone and Telegraph Corp., 775 F.2d 20, 24 (2d Cir.) cert. denied, 474 U.S. 841 (1985)). Plaintiff alleges conduct on part of employer of decades of secrecy specifically intended to mislead him as to the existence of a cause of action or which had the implementation of making it "impossible for a reasonably prudent person to learn that his discharge was discriminatory." Plaintiff must allege conduct on the part of his employer specifically intended to mislead him as to the existence of a cause of action, Bryan at 325, or which had the implementation of making it "impossible for a reasonably prudent person to learn that his discharge was discriminatory." Miller at 24, Plaintiff alleges decades of secrecy shows employer acted deliberately and with unmistakable understanding that his conduct would cause the employee to delay filing his charge. See also Cook v. Pan American World Airways, Inc., 771 F.2d 635, 646-47 (2d Cir. 1985) (employer not estopped from asserting time-barred defense in absence of showing that employer acted deliberately and with unmistakable understanding that his conduct would cause the employee to delay filing his charge.).

CASE PRECEDENTIAL AND STATUTORY INJUNCTION LAW

7. (1) "district court did not provide litigant with opportunity to be heard on the matter" Brow v. Farrelly, C.A.3(Virgin Islands) 1983, 994 F.2d 1027; (2) "litigant was not given opportunity to oppose entry of so broad an order placing restrictions on Court access" Cok v. Family Court of Rhode Isalnd, C.A.1(R.I.)1983, 985 F.2d 32; (3) "plaintiff enjoined from filing further complaints or pleadings without leave of court was entitled to notice and opportunity to oppose such order before it was instituted." Tripati v. Beauman, C.A.10(Wyo.)1989, 878 F.2d 351; (4) "order should not have been entered without giving notice and opportunity to be heard." Matter of Hartford Textile Corp., C.A.2(N.Y.)1979, 613 F.2d 388; and (5) "Enjoining order against litigant...must give...litigant adequate notice to oppose order before entry" Cello-Whitney v. Hoover, W.D. Wash.1991, 769 F.Supp. 1155.

8. All Writs Act permits court to enjoin repetitive and vexatious litigation only after it has reached judgement on merits. Cook v. Peter Kiewit Sons Co., C.A.9(Cal.)1985, 775 F.2d 1030, certiorari denied 106 S.Ct. 2919, 476 U.S. 1183, 91 L.Ed.2d 547, rehearing denied 107 S.Ct. 12, 478 U.S. 1031, 91 L.Ed.2d 757.

9. (1) "...injunction...should be narrowly drawn to fit specific vice encountered." Castro v. U.S., C.A.1(Puerto Rico)1985, 775 F.2d 399; (2) "did not narrowly tailor order to meet circumstances of case." Brow v. Farrelly, C.A.3(Virgin Islands)1983, 994 F.2d 1027: and (3) "enjoining order against litigant...must...be narrowly tailored to remedy only litigant's particular abuses." Cello-Whitney v. Hoover, W.D.Wash.1991, 769 F.Supp. 1155.

10. "All Writs Act" 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a) "agreeable to usages and principles of law".

1ST 7/21/95 INJUNCTION IN SDNY

11. First filed 10/4/94 EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males complaint 94 Civ. 7186 (JFK) before Judge John F. 2ND FILED EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85
EMPLOYMENT SEX DISCRIMINATION AGAINST MALES

12. Judge John J. Sterling, EDNY rendered no final judgement on merits in his 11/18/96 dismissal ORDER for plaintiff's 10/31/96

5/53

filed 96 CV 5344 (JJS) complaint not enjoined in EDNY by 7/21/95 1st injunction for SDNY for 2nd prior filed EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males not found by Judge Keenan, SDNY untimely or res judicata barred by decision on same cause of action in any specific prior filed complaint and wrongful dismissal 7/21/95 based on three 11/26/94 frauds whereupon Judge Sterling, EDNY admitted "The plaintiff filed a complaint [EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex] discrimination [against males]...The issue arising from the facts set forth in this complaint have been fully adjudicated in the Southern District...therefore barred by the doctrine of res judicata ..." where Judge Keenan, SDNY 7/21/95 adjudicated only three 11/26/94 frauds of opposing counsel.

UNFILED 3RD CLAIMED EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 EMPLOYMENT SEX DISCRIMINATION AGAINST MALES

13. Chief Judge Thomas P. Griesa, SDNY 6/4/97 denied plaintiff's 2/27/97 petition for leave to file in SDNY EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males 3rd claimed complaint upon his own authored cause of action "...judges did adopt the government's [opposing counsel's] language [three 11/26/94 frauds], this would not give rise to a cognizable claim."

9/10/97 2ND INJUNCTION FOR ALL FEDERAL DISTRICT COURTS

14. Judge Keenan, SDNY in 9/10/97 MEMORANDUM OPINION and ORDER narrowed his 7/21/95 1st injunction for "future actions in SDNY" to three 11/26/94 frauds of opposing counsel causes of actions complaints and extended to all federal district courts "Plaintiff is hereby prohibited from filing any further complaints in any Malley to re: injunction extension to all Federal CT.s, pursuant to 4/27/97 order of this Court [Judge Keenan, SDNY]..."; (2) "All Writs Act permits court to enjoin repetitive and vexatious litigation only after it has reached judgement on merits." Cit. para. 8 above, where unopposed and without final judgement on merits for EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males complaints 10/4/94 1st filed 94 Civ. 7186 (JFK) before Judge Keenan, SDNY and 10/31/96 2nd filed 96 CV 5344 (JJS) before Judge Sterling EDNY as well as final judgement for any cause of action in any other federal district court; and (3) "All Writs Act" 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a) "agreeable to usages and principles of law" Cit. para. 10 above but conformed to (4) "...injunction...should be narrowly drawn to fit specific vice[s] encountered." Cit. para. 9 above, where issued for "specific vice[s] encountered" three 11/26/94 frauds.

15. Judge Keenan, SDNY's 9/10/97 2nd injunction for three 11/26/94 frauds causes of actions complaints for all federal district courts not enjoined 3rd-9th filed EARLY JUNE '94 EQUITABLY TOLLED 12/21/85 employment sex discrimination against males complaints by 1st not matching, 2nd 12/21/85 instance of violation predating, and 3rd 12/21/85 could not arose from later 1st 11/26/94 fraud 3/18/87 instance of violation or from later 2nd and 3rd 11/26/94 frauds 3/20/90 instance of violation.

94 Civ. 7186 (JPK)

MEMORANDUMOPINION and ORDER

JOHN F. KEENAN, United States District Judge:

By Opinion and Order dated July 21, 1995, the Court granted Defendants' Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss Plaintiff's complaint in its entirety on statute of limitations and res judicata grounds. Noting that Plaintiff had already filed four previous actions in this Court based on the same claims and that Chief Judge Griesa had twice warned Plaintiff against further filings based on the same core allegations, the Court also ordered Plaintiff not to file any further complaints in this Court without first obtaining permission from a judge of this Court.

Malley appealed the injunction to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. The Second Circuit affirmed the injunction by Order dated April 23, 1997 and remanded the matter for this Court's consideration of an order extending the injunction to all federal courts. The Court then directed submissions from the parties addressing the proposed extension of the injunction. Only Defendant submitted papers in response, urging the proposed extension of the injunction to all federal courts.

Based on Plaintiff's history of abusing the process of this and other courts by repeatedly filing actions based on the same allegations, see Malley v. New York City Board of Educ., 94 Civ. 4557 (TPG) (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 5, 1994); Malley v. Medical Bureau, 94 Civ. 3051 (TPG) (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 26, 1994); Malley v. New York City Board of Educ., 93 Civ. 2887 (CSH) (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 9, 1994); Malley v. Fernandez, 91 Civ. 5635 (PKL) (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 11, 1992), aff'd, No. 92-9035, slip op. (2d Cir. Apr. 8, 1993) (per curiam); Malley v. N.Y.C. Board of Educ., 96 CV 5344 (SJ) (E.D.N.Y. Nov. 18, 1996); Malley v. N.Y.C. Board of Educ., 93 Civ. 5613 (HAA) (D.N.J., filed Dec. 20, 1993); Malley v. Medical Bureau, 93 Civ. 5612 (HAA) (D.N.J., filed April 25, 1994), and Plaintiff not having opposed such relief, the Court hereby extends the injunction to all federal courts. Plaintiff is hereby prohibited from filing any further complaints in any federal court based on his dismissal by the Board of Education and/or the denial of his application to have his teaching license reinstated without first obtaining leave of a judge of the court in which he seeks to file such complaint. It is further ordered that Plaintiff attach a copy of this Order to any pleading filed, or attempted to be filed, in a civil action in any federal court. Failure to comply with this order may result in the summary dismissal of Plaintiff's lawsuit.

SO ORDERED.

-----X
PETER J. MALLEY,

Plaintiff,

-against-

NEW YORK CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION; CITY OF NEW YORK; CORPORATION COUNSEL OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

Defendants.

-----X
VICTOR MARRERO, United States District Judge..

Plaintiff Peter J. Malley ("Malley"), appearing pro se, commenced the present action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging employment discrimination. He seeks "damages and pre-judgement interest of at least millions of dollars." (Compl. at ¶ 1.)

BACKGROUND

Malley is a former mathematics teacher who was terminated from his position at a New York City public high school in 1987, over fifteen years ago. He has filed fifteen cases (including the instant action) in this Court which either directly or indirectly address his termination. See, e.g., Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 94 Civ. 7186, 1995 WL 434322, at ** 1-2 (S.D.N.Y. July 24, 1995); Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 93 Civ. 2887, 1994 WL 39032 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 9, 1994); Malley v. Fernandez, No. 91 Civ. 5635, 1992 WL 204359, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 1992). In addition, Malley has filed three actions in the Eastern District of New York and in the District of New Jersey which also include claims regarding his termination. Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 96 Civ. 5344 (E.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 1995); Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 93 Civ. 5613 (D.N.J. Mar. 15, 1994); Malley v. Medical Bureau, No. 93 Civ. 5612 (D.N.J. Apr. 26, 1994).

By Order dated April 26, 1994, the Honorable Thomas P. Griesa, warned Malley that if he continued to file complaints against New York City (the "City") and the City Board of Education (the "Board") regarding his termination, the Court may enjoin him from filing future cases without first obtaining leave of court. Malley v. Medical Bureau, No. 94 Civ. 3051 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 26, 1994) (dismissed sua sponte). He was reminded of this warning by Judge Griesa in Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 94 Civ. 4557 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 5, 1994). Despite these warnings, Malley filed a new action which resulted in an order by the Honorable John F. Keenan that "[p]laintiff may not file any more complaints in this Court without first obtaining the permission of a Judge of this Court." Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 94 Civ. 7186, 1995 WL 434322, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. July 24, 1995). The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit approved this injunction, saw "no barrier to a broader injunction in light of the warnings previously issued to Malley," and remanded the action to determine if the injunction should be broadened from this Court to all federal district courts. Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., 112 F.3d 69, 69-70 (2d Cir. 1997) (per curiam) (this action was required because "Malley has amply demonstrated that neither the lack of success of his actions nor the warnings of the district court will cause him to cease his abuse of the judicial process."). Thereafter, Judge Keenan extended the injunction as follows:

Plaintiff is hereby prohibited from filing any further complaints in any federal court based on his dismissal by the Board of Education and/or the denial of his application to have his teaching license reinstated without first obtaining leave of a judge of the court in which he seeks to file such complaint. It is further ordered that plaintiff attach a copy of this Order to any pleading filed, or attempted to be filed, in a civil action in any federal court. Failure to comply with this Order may result in the summary dismissal of Plaintiff's lawsuit.

Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 94 Civ. 7186, 1997 WL 570501, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 15, 1997). Malley was admonished for repeated failure to comply with Judge Keenan's September 15, 1997 Order and was eventually sanctioned $1,500.00 under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Malley v. Corp. Counsel of the City of N.Y., No. 00 Civ. 1617 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 21, 2000). However, Malley continues to ignore this Court's Order by filing complaints without first obtaining leave of the Court. See, e.g., Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 02 Civ. 3575 (VM) (S.D.N.Y. May 15, 2002); Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 02 Civ. 1482 (WK) (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 5, 2002); Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 00 Civ. 2947 (JFK) (S.D.N.Y. May 24, 2000).

THE PRESENT ACTION

In this action, Malley attempts to circumvent the Order barring him from filing any action "based on his dismissal by the Board of Education and/or the denial of his application to have his teaching license reinstated in any federal district court without prior leave of court," Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ., No. 94 Civ. 7186 (JFK), 1997 WL 570501, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 15, 1997), by alleging that defendants violated his civil rights prior to his termination. (Compl. at 4.) Malley alleges that permission from this Court before filing this action was not necessary because he is alleging that the discrimination occurred on December 21, 1985, a year prior to his termination. However, the complaint is just another of Malley's thinly veiled attempts to reargue claims pertaining to his "dismissal by the Board of Education and/or the denial of his application to have his teaching license reinstated". Id.

In any event, even if this action were outside the parameters of this Court's injunction, the action would be dismissed as time-barred under New York law. See Owens v. Okure, 488 U.S. 235 (1989) (three-year statute of limitations for actions under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 in New York); Wilson v. Garcia, 471 U.S. 261 (1985) (statute of limitations for § 1983 actions governed by state law); New York Civil Practice Law and Rules ("CPLR") § 214 (McKinney 2000) (three-year statute of limitations for tort actions); CPLR § 213 (McKinney 2000) (six year statute of limitations for contract actions).

While ordinarily the Court would not dismiss a complaint where a defense is waivable, the facts clearly show that Malley's claims are over sixteen years old. The incidents upon which this complaint is based occurred on December 21, 1985. However, plaintiff's complaint was received by the Court's Pro Se Office on June 4, 2002. See Pino v. Ryan, 49 F.3d 51, 53 (2d Cir. 1995) (a defense that appears on the face of the complaint may be the basis for a dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915). Consequently, a dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 based on the statute of limitations is especially appropriate where, as in this case, the injuries complained of occurred well outside the applicable limitations period for either a civil rights, contract or tort claim. Id. at 54; see also Baker v. Cuomo, 58 F.3d 814, 818-19 (2d Cir. 1995) (a sua sponte dismissal is "appropriate if it appears from the face of the complaint that the action is barred . . . by the statute of limitations"), vacated in part on other grounds, 85 F.3d 919 (2d Cir. 1996).

Moreover, in order to sustain a claim for relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against municipal defendants, such as the City and the Board and Corporation Counsel, Malley must show the existence of an officially adopted policy or custom that caused injury and a causal connection between that policy or custom and the deprivation of a constitutional right. See Bd. of County Comm'r's of Bryan County, Oklahoma v. Brown, 520 U.S. 397, 402-03 (1997) (citing Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 690 (1978)); Sarus v. Rotundo, 831 F.2d 397, 400 (2d Cir. 1987). Even when liberally construed, Malley's complaint cannot reasonably be interpreted as alleging facts sufficient to demonstrate that Malley's injury was caused by any policy or custom of the municipal defendants. Furthermore, if Malley seeks to pursue claims against the agencies of the City, such as the Board of Corporation Counsel, these departments do not have the capacity to be sued. See Orraca v. City of New York, 897 F. Supp. 148, 152 (S.D.N.Y. 1995); N.Y. City Charter §§ 431-40. Instead, any action against such agencies must be brought against the City of New York. N.Y. City Charter § 396.

DISCUSSION

Malley's disregard of this Court's various Orders cannot be tolerated. Accordingly, his latest action is dismissed. Furthermore, Malley is reminded that "[p]ro se status does not confer the right to make frivolous motions and claims." Glendora v. Ken, Nos. 97 Civ. 1131, 98 Civ. 421, 1999 WL 390642, at *5 (E.D.N.Y. Mar. 31, 1999). By his own conduct, Malley has demonstrated his refusal or, perhaps inability, to abide by this Court's prior admonitions and injunctions. Thus, "'the Court must find additional methods to make its message clear to plaintiff.'" Weinstein v. Hatch, No. 98 Civ. 8119, 1998 WL 851581, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 7, 1998) (quoting Williams v. Revlon, Co., 156 F.R.D. 39, 44 (S.D.N.Y. 1994)).

Consequently, the Court shall extend Judge Keenan's bar order and hereby prohibit Malley from filing any further complaints in any federal court pertaining to his employment or subsequent termination with the New York City Board of Education. The Clerk of Court is directed to refuse any action filed by Malley in any federal court unless such filing is accompanied by an affirmation, attested under penalty of perjury, setting forth succinctly (1) the facts which gave rise to the action, (2) an attestation that the case does not relate to his prior employment with or termination by the Board which he has been enjoined from further litigating, (3) a petition for leave to file an action for approval by the assigned Judge, and (4) a copy of this Order and of Judge Keenan's Order of September 15, 1997. This injunction shall apply regardless of whether plaintiff seeks to pay the $150.00 filng fee or to proceed in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

SANCTIONS

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides the minimal threshold requirement for all documents presented to the court, whether offered by counsel or the party, including a pro se litigant. Vasile v. Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., 20 F. Supp. 2d 465, 505 (E.D.N.Y. 1998) (citing Jones v. City of Buffalo, No. 96-CV-0739E(F), 1998 WL 214807, at *3 (W.D.N.Y. Apr. 22, 1998); Jemzura v. Public Serv. Comm'n, 961 F. Supp. 406, 414-15 (N.D.N.Y. 1997); Williams v. Revlon Co., 156 F.R.D. 39, 43-44 (S.D.N.Y. 1994)), aff'd, 205 F.3d 1327 (2d Cir. 2000). The fact that a litigant appears pro se does not shield him from Rule 11 sanctions because "one acting pro se has no license to harass others, clog the judicial machinery with meritless litigation, and abuse already overloaded court dockets." Patterson v. Aiken, 841 F.2d 386, 387 (11th Cir. 1988) (quoting Ferguson v. MBank Houston, N.A., 808 F.2d 358, 359 (5th Cir. 1986)). Malley's conduct is vexatious, harassing and frivolous within the meaning of Rule 11. See Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 49 F. Supp. 2d 686, 687-88 (S.D.N.Y. 1999). Thus, imposition of monetary sanctions is appropriate.

23/53

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, it is hereby ORDERED that this Court's bar order issued on September 15, 1997 in connection with Malley v. N.Y. City Bd. of Educ.,
No. 94 Civ. 7186, is extended to prohibit Malley from filing any further complaints in any federal court pertaining to his employment with or subsequent termination by the New York City Board of Education, as well as any other action, unless such filing complies with the provisions of this Order; and Malley is further

ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE by affirmation why monetary sanctions in the amount of $2,000.00 should not be imposed against him pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Malley shall submit to this Court, within ten (10) days of the date of this Order, his written affirmation setting forth good cause why this sanction under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure should not be imposed upon him by this Court. Should Malley fail to submit his affirmation within the time directed, or should his affirmation fail to set forth good cause to excuse him from this sanction, the $2,000.00 sanction shall be imposed. If the $2,000.00 sanction is imposed, no further filing of any other action by Malley in this Court shall be accepted by the Clerk of Court, until such sanction is properly paid.

24/53

The Clerk of Court is directed to close this case.

SO ORDERED.

Remedies Sought

62. Wherefore, Plaintiff demands following relief by way of judgement against Defendants;

- 1) Damages for lost salary, benefits, bonus, all N.Y.C. teaching licenses, and compensation due from March 18, 1987 to date of judgement.
- 2) Damages for lost salary, benefits, bonuses, all N.Y.C. teaching licenses, and compensation to date of retirement as Plaintiff would have been entitled but for Defendants actions.
- 3) For attorney fee, costs of court and reasonable expenses of litigation.
- 4) Damages of total for sanctions issued on Defendants' 1st 11/26/94 fraud and/or sanctions issued on Defendants' explicit and/or implicit fraud[s] from among three 11/26/94 frauds.
- 5) Pre-judgement interest.
- 6) Such other relief as court deems just, adequate, and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter J. Malley
